PRESIDENT STATEMENT

Medicinal and aromatic plants are of great economic value, considering the fact of their growing demand locally and globally due to the multiplicity of areas of their use, the most important of which is the preparation of some medicines such as medicines for relieving joint pain, rheumatic infections, medicines for high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis, as well as the production of fixed oils where the seeds of some These plants contain fixed oils that are used in the composition of some medical preparations, as well as their use in the preparation of cosmetics, hair creams, and soap. They are also used in the manufacture of scents and perfumes, or as spices, drinks, flavorings or scents.

Egypt possesses huge elements that enhance the chances of doubling its production of medicinal and aromatic plants, among them the diversity of climate, the availability of skilled and trained manpower in the operations of cultivation, collection and marketing, as well as the availability of various types of soil suitable for the cultivation of an abundant number of medicinal and aromatic plants, such as heavy clay, light sandy, and yellow lands.

In front of the increasing global demand for Egyptian products of medicinal and aromatic plants, OrionTrade has taken upon itself the responsibility of providing an integrated group of the finest varieties of these plants to suit the various requirements of the global market.

Our brand Khair is very reputable in the international markets and their demand is increasing to a great extent that we are still improving to meet this increasing demand for our products all over the world.

Finally, Our goal is to providing the best solutions, in close cooperation with our customers continuously through developing long-lasting relationships, and developing our staff, by offering a stimulating environment that encourages innovation and knowledge sharing.

Sincerely Yours,
